To carry out this mandate, World Renew enlists the help of volunteers like yourself. As image bearers of God, who help their neighbours far and near to become self-sufficient in meeting their own needs, volunteers need to be committed to the Christian faith and World Renew's mission. They need to be emotionally stable, flexible, and adaptable and creative in order to work with demanding and diverse situations.

Do you support this above written statement of World Renew's mission, and do you feel you possess in some measure the characteristics needed to do the task? Please indicate your agreement by signing your name below.
